

Improving your leadership skills

A day for junior doctors in Mersey and the North Western Deanery

North West

'Very well conducted ... Professional, relevant and of a high standard ... Excellent topics covered ...'

Feedback: 'Improving your leadership skills Course', March 2010

Emerging Clinical Leaders | Network

www.cln.nhs.uk/eclnnw

A one day course to help you improve your leadership skills with experts such as local medical directors. You will get an update on the changing structure of the NHS from Professor Jenny Simpson OBE, a view of current leadership opportunities around the region and a presentation from your deanery leadership team.

Speakers

Peter M Boggis, Management Consultant, Innovas' Organisational Development Practice

Professor Jenny Simpson OBE

Programme: 8:30am – 4:30pm

COURSE DIRECTORS

Ted Adams, Registrar in Obstetrics and Gynaecology (Merseyside),
Vice-Chair National RCOG trainees' committee
Hesham Abdalla, Paediatric SpR, Chairman of Emerging Clinical Leaders Network

Choose from 3 dates and 3 venues

1st December 2010, Royal Preston Hospital, Education Centre

18th January 2011, Liverpool Women's hospital, Blair Bell Education Centre

4th March 2011, Manchester Royal Infirmary, Education centre

Book Online: www.oxbridgemedica.com

Oxbridge Medica is an Events' management organization dealing with course bookings

Email: info@oxbridgemedica.com Tel: 0161 980 8882

The course is supported by a Bursary from the National Leadership Council and therefore only a nominal booking fee is required; all delegates will need to pay a retainer fee which will be refunded after the Course, less administration.

Visit the website for more details. Terms and conditions apply.